

ACTIVITY 8

Emotional investment

Why is it difficult for Peter to take an objective view of his business? What is his emotional investment? Can you identify instances from your own experience that you could draw upon to help you support Peter?

As a mentor it is often useful to establish the level and type of emotional investment you are dealing with in your mentee. This will allow you to adopt the most appropriate mentoring intervention.